PURPOSE

Our goal is to provide support to the Foster Parent when an allegation has been or might be brought against him or her.

It is important to keep Foster Parents informed of the procedures and the process through which an allegation will take them.

We provide support without judgment and an environment which is as non-destructive as possible for the Foster Parents and their families.

DCF or the Contracted Provider is governed by an investigative response outlined in operating procedure 175-21

Pointers for dealing with an allegation

- Call FAST hotline for support.
- FAST is to prepare you if & when an allegation is filed on you. It's okay to stop and breathe.
- Keep a complete written journal of all dates, times, events and communications
- Insist on giving full input into the investigations.
- Request assistance from DCF or the CBC in explaining to children what is happening and why.
- Maintain your sense of professionalism as Foster Parents by cooperating with the investigation.

Impact on Families

- Trauma: Foster Parents express shock and disbelief.
- Betrayal: Foster parents feel their main source of support can no longer talk to them.
- Stigma: Foster Parents report feelings of shame, humiliation, inadequacy, and lowered self esteem.
- Powerlessness: Foster Parents often feel they have little information regarding the allegation due to the lengthy and complex process.
